FOREWORD

PURPOSE. The 1987 ABC Magazine Trend Report is published primarily for advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers interested in objective information on a large number of ABC-audited magazines.

This report includes circulation and advertising rate data for 162 U.S. and 52 Canadian ABC magazine members. The data in this edition have been compiled for the five year period from 1982-1986. U.S. magazines are grouped according to general interest categories which correspond to the publications' main listing in Standard Rate & Data's Consumer Magazine edition. The Canadian magazines are listed in two sections - English and French - and grouped according to general interest categories which correspond to the publications' main listing in Canadian Advertising Rates & Data.

CRITERIA. To be included in this report, a U.S. magazine must have an ABC-audited average paid circulation of at least 100,000 and an annual advertising revenue of at least $1,000,000. Canadian magazines must be ABC members.

PUBLICATIONS. The 1987 Edition includes twenty-three (23) new U.S. and four new Canadian magazine listings:

FOREWORD (cont.)

EXPLANATION OF DATA ITEMS AND SOURCES.

Average Paid Circulation. This figure, rounded to the nearest hundred, is a weighted average determined from Average Total Paid Circulation reported in Paragraph 1 of June and December Publisher's Statements and/or Initial Audit Reports (see Special Notes, page 7).

Percentage Subscription. Determined from same information used for Average Paid Circulation (above).

Post Expiration Copies. This figure is taken from Paragraph 7 of the June and December Publisher's Statements.

Total Subscriptions Sold. This figure, rounded to the nearest hundred, is the sum of the totals reported in Paragraphs 3-6 of June and December statements.

Percentage of U.S. Circulation. Determined by subtracting the total circulation for Alaska & Hawaii from the total U.S. and dividing by the total U.S. Circulation from Paragraph 12 of the June and December statements.

Percentage at Basic Rates. Determined by dividing the sum of lines 3a., 3b. and 3d. from June and December statements by Total Subscriptions Sold (above). NOTE: To maintain comparability with the data shown in previously issued ANA reports, all subscriptions sold at prices other than those reported as being sold at "lower than basic prices" have been included in the calculation of the "%@ Basic Rates." Accordingly, subscriptions sold at "higher than basic prices" and those sold at "association subscription prices" are included in the percentage of subscriptions sold at basic rates.

Percentage Sold with Premium. Determined by subtracting line 6a from the Total Subscriptions Sold in Period and then divided by the Total Subscriptions Sold in Period for the June and December statements.

Single Copy Price/1 Yr. Sub. Price/% Disc. Information is taken from the December 31st reports of each year and reflect information in effect as of December 31st of each year. All prices shown reflect those noted as "Basic." The percent discount is based on the difference between the one year subscription price versus the single copy price multiplied by the total number of issues for the year.

Advertising Rates. For U.S. publications, the four color and black & white rates shown are those reported in effect as of December 31 of each year, based on Standard Rate and Data Services' Consumer Magazine issues. The advertising rates for Canadian publications were compiled from January 1983-1987 issues of Canadian Advertising Rates & Data.

Cost per Thousand. Determined by dividing the advertising rate by the average paid circulation and multiplying by 1,000.

Rate Base/Circulation Guarantee. Information on each publication's advertising rate base/circulation guarantee was obtained from released ABC Audit Reports. The abbreviation "N.C." (none claimed) appears for any year a publication may not have reported a rate base/circulation guarantee.

Issues Below Rate Base. A total # of issues that did not meet the publication's advertising rate base/circulation guarantee for the June and December statements.

FUTURE EDITIONS. The next edition of this report will incorporate 1987 data. Suggestions for making future editions more useful are welcomed.

GENERAL INFORMATION RELATING TO CIRCULATION METHODS USED BY PUBLISHERS

Audit Bureau of Circulations (ABC) reports provide quantitative facts on circulation, not qualitative measures of the relative merits of circulation methods. However, ABC figures provide a basis for questions to publishers regarding the use of various channels of distribution and selling techniques.

The publisher's selection of circulation sources is based primarily on the economics of each source for the particular publication, its long-range and short-range effects on the publication and over-all circulation objectives.

The following may be helpful in attaining a better understanding of the various channels of distribution used by magazine publishers and reported on in ABC Publisher's Statements and Audit Reports.

A. Single Copy Sales (Paragraph 1)

Single-copy sales are obtained through newsdealers, supermarkets, drugstores, confectionery stores, tobacco shops, hotels and other retail outlets. It has been stated that although the continuity of purchase of a magazine in this manner is more likely to be on an irregular basis, the act of buying is generally believed to indicate strong interest in the magazine purchased.

At the same time, special interest publications and others may place less emphasis on the importance of having single-copy circulation because of inherent marketing factors for reaching target audiences in the most economical manner.

Bulk and all other. This circulation is explained in Paragraph 11 of ABC reports. Normally such circulation includes multiple-copy sales of an individual issue to a single source and may be a part of a promotion program by the bulk purchaser.

B. Channels of Subscription Sales (Paragraph 5)

(a) Ordered by mail and/or direct request.

Usually this method of subscription procurement is considered by many publications to be the most important and profitable method of obtaining renewal subscriptions. It is frequently claimed that this is the largest source of new subscriptions and often represents the greatest number of subscription sales reported by ABC member magazines.

Using this method of subscription procurement, publishers can to a large extent direct their subscription promotion efforts to specific markets or prospects of predetermined and known characteristics. Renewals are generally solicited by mail and many publishers believe that new subscriptions "ordered by mail and/or direct request" produce a higher renewal rate.

Since it is considered difficult to utilize individualized sales approaches for this method of subscription solicitations, especially for new business, offers frequently include short-term "introductory" subscriptions at a special price, long-term subscriptions at substantial savings, or "sweepstakes" offers. Apparently, the use of combination offers or the offer of premiums are less frequently used as a procurement method for this type of subscription.

(b) Ordered through salespeople.

1. Catalog agencies and individual agents. The bulk of the subscription production from this source is generally in the form of institutional orders for schools, libraries, etc. Often this kind of business is solicited on a bid basis for magazine lists preselected by the institution. Copies sold through this source would seem more likely to have high multiple readership.
2. Publisher's own and other publishers' salespeople and -
3. Independent agencies' salespeople. Field selling staffs may be directly supervised by publisher personnel or they may be independently owned and operated. They may opt to sell on a direct contact basis or they may be sponsored by a local civic or charitable organization.

Field selling staffs are usually composed of "professionals" who depend on selling subscriptions as their livelihood. In order to validate that the sales staff of these agencies conform to the policies of the agency and/or publisher and the rules under which they are authorized (which might stipulate no sympathy appeals, full payment of the authorized price under the payment plan authorized, proper use of premiums or combinations, etc.), many publishers endeavor to verify a percentage of the orders by mail and/or field surveys and supervision.

It is generally felt that abuses in this type of selling are less frequent today than in the past. This can be attributed to the efforts of the Magazine Publishers Association, the Federal Trade Commission and individual publishers.

It is considered normal practice for field selling staffs, whether publisher-owned or independent, sponsored or unsponsored, to receive a higher commission rate than independent agents or subagents of catalog agencies. This could be either in the form of cash bonuses or lower remitting rates.

4. Newspaper agencies. Practically all subscriptions received through this channel are sold in combination with newspapers. It is customary to have one specified newspaper included in every combination offer. The combination usually will include several magazines, selected by the subscribers.

   Sales are made by the newspapers' carrier staffs or through a mail solicitation effort conducted by the newspaper.

5. Members of schools, churches, fraternal and similar organizations. Sales in this category differ from the sponsored sales of field staffs in that the sale is made by members of the school, church or other organization rather than by a professional salesperson.

   Generally, the student or organization member sells from a brochure listing many different titles. While friendship or a willingness to help out a good cause may enter into the decision to purchase, in entering into such a sale the customer nonetheless selects the magazine or magazines of their choice from the list.

(c) Association memberships.

Subscription prices of magazines issued by associations are often included in the annual dues and are non-deductible from those dues. In these cases the publisher usually has control over selling methods. The subscriber does not have the choice of free selection.

Some associations permit the member to deduct the price of a subscription to the publication from the dues. In these instances the subscriber makes the choice when joining the association or renewing the membership.

In either case, the method is explained in ABC reports, Paragraph 11 - Explanatory.

(d) All other channels.

When production is generated from other channels, these other channels are described in Paragraph 11.

C. Other Factors Influencing Circulation

Use of Premiums (Paragraph 6)

Premiums given with magazine subscriptions may be "free" to the subscriber, in that no additional charge is made for the premium, or an additional charge may be made for the premium. ABC rules require that such sales be properly reported.

One type of premium frequently used is a book containing the same general kinds of material as in the magazine. This is a "related" premium and usually indicates reader appeal in the subject matter appearing in the publication.

The second type of premium often used is "unrelated" to the magazine. Use of this kind of premium may have a significant influence on the subscription purchase.

The ABC rule on premiums requires that in order for the subscription to qualify as paid, the amount paid by the subscriber must equal the full value of the premium, plus not less than 50 percent of the basic subscription price of the publication for terms of one year or less. For terms of more than one year, it must be at least 50% of the pro rata of the basic annual prices for the term of the order. The value of the premium is either determined by a stated value or one based on cost plus 25 percent. The highest figure is the one used.

Duration of Subscriptions Sold (Paragraph 4)

While for many years it was considered to the publisher's advantage to obtain original and renewal subscriptions for as long a period as possible, the effect of current inflationary trends on postage and production costs is such that many publishers prefer to limit the number of long-term subscriptions and their long-term obligation at current prices.

At the other end of the scale, short-term subscriptions of less than one year's duration are generally considered worthwhile to the publisher only if they can be converted to longer-term renewals or to meet specified short-term circulation objectives.

Long-term subscriptions are frequently obtained through field staff solicitations while shorter "introductory" offers are usually associated with direct mail new business offers. The relative worth of one year subscriptions vs. two, three years or more, from a readership and responsiveness standpoint is subject to differing evaluations.

Post Expiration Copies (Paragraph 7)

Some publishers follow a policy terminating subscriptions promptly at expiration. Others consider serving additional copies past the expiration date as a good method of obtaining renewals and assuring continuity of service to the subscriber.

If copies are served consecutively without missing an issue, ABC rules permit including the copies served beyond expiration in paid circulation up to three months for domestic and six months for foreign subscriptions, providing at least 50 percent of the basic annual subscription price was paid originally. Subscriptions carried as post expiration copies beyond the specified period must be omitted from the paid circulation count.

Cost of Obtaining Circulation

Data on the costs of circulation acquisition do not appear in ABC reports as they represent confidential and internal operating costs of the publisher. Questions to publishers may sometimes elicit considerable information on costs, but such figures may be difficult to analyze and to compare unless it is known what factors may be included or excluded.

It is generally agreed that high-cost circulation is usually poor economics for the publisher over the long run; it may represent a poor investment for the reader if editorial quality is impaired to support it; and a poor buy for the advertiser if it does not produce interested and responsive readers.

At the same time, the cost of circulation acquisition should be considered in terms of the overall life of the subscription. Some subscription sources may have an initially higher cost or involve considerable investment by the publisher, but will represent more economical or low-cost circulation to the publisher over the long run because of a high renewal performance.
